Staff Spotlight: Garrett Trunk

This week's employee spotlight features Garrett Trunk, who teaches P.E this semester. Mr. Trunk was born in St. Louis, Missouri. He went to Missouri Baptist College for 4 years and has a degree in religion and business administration. He came to Kirksville in 2019 and lives with his wife Jennifer, and his two sons Silas, and Elijah. He is currently an associate pastor at Hamilton Street Baptist Church in Kirksville, and has also been a youth pastor, senior pastor, and church planter. Mr. Trunk has wanted to be a P.E teacher for a long time but was called into ministry. When he had the opportunity to teach P.E at NCHS, he gladly accepted. We are all glad Mr. Trunk was able to take up this job for our school, and his continuous hard work. Mr. Trunk is also known as Pastor Jesus Man Dude Sir, and his car has been dubbed the Christ Cruiser.

YMCA

Last Friday, NCHS students spent their service day at Kirksville's local YMCA. They started the day off by assisting with the children's nutrition program. This consisted of packing lunches for children Kirksville's local public schools as well as for kids that attend the YMCA regularly. Grocery care packs were also assembled, which consisted of enough food items as well as coloring sheets for a small family. After finishing that they cleaned and washed the walls of the basketball gym as well as redecorating the bulletin boards for this year's upcoming Valentine's Day! The students got several things accomplished and it was a wonderful day of service!
